

Ways to support language in maths

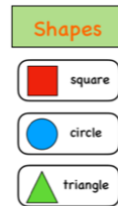

Teach maths vocabulary, explain what the word means and how it sounds.

If you use different words for the same concept, tell your child that they mean the same thing.

Make a maths word wall.

Use practical and visual teaching methods.

Explain what is the same and different about concepts.

